Donation of Items to the Church Before donating items to church, please contact the church office first to see if there is a requirement for what you have. Also, if you are leaving items for other church members, please clearly label and inform the person of the location to find the items.

Thursday Knitting/Crochet Group During August the STACS (St. Andrew's Coffee Shop) will be closed for the Summer. However, the current knitting and Crochet Group will continue to meet in the Small Hall from 10-12pm. Any donations of wool/yarn are greatly received.

Lost Property & Crockery at St. Andrew's
Please check the Corridor Lost Property drawers & the pegs adjacent to the toilets for your items. We have accumulated a large amount of crockery on the Church Corridor window ledge, so please check and remove your items. Items left over by the end of July will be disposed of.

Eco Tip: Please collect empty cotton reels, corks, plastic milk bottle lids and inner tubes from kitchen rolls for our children's activities—see Chantal with your donations, thank you.
